

Day One

pages _____ to _____

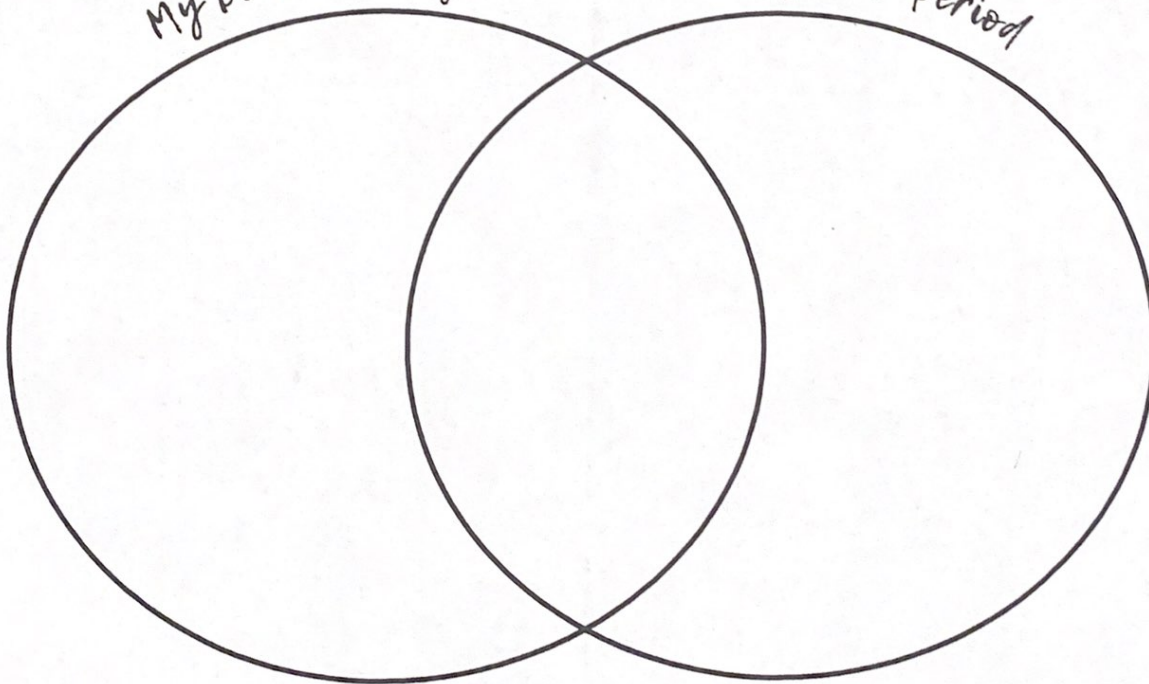

Two or three sentence summary of what I read:

What is the setting (time & place) of this book?

Find 3 details that make life in this setting different from the world you live in today.
Find 3 detail that are the same as your time.

My book's setting

My time period

Reading Response

Why is the setting important to the story?

Handwriting practice lines for the response section.

Day Two

pages _____ to _____

Two or three sentence summary of what I read:

Who is the narrator (person telling the story) of your book?

- ☐ a character in the story
- ☐ an omniscient narrator who knows everything about the story
- ☐ a limited narrator who mainly tells about one character's point of view

Explain how you know.

Predict how the story might be different with a different narrator.

reading response

What did you picture in your mind as you did your reading today?

Handwriting practice lines for the reading response section. Each line set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are 10 such sets of lines available for writing.