IV. Homework

Homework will be checked on a daily basis in class together. Students should ask questions about problems they do not understand or worked incorrectly. Students should also review their corrections to help better prepare them for tests and quizzes. Homework will be collected as determined necessary. Answers only will not be accepted.

V. Tutoring

Tutoring will be available in the mornings. Exact days will be posted in the classroom.

VI. Expectations

Be in your seat ready and have your pencils sharpened before the tardy bell rings.

You will NOT be allowed to share calculators during a quiz or test.

You are NOT allowed to have food, drink or gum in the classroom, with the exception of water.

Bathroom visits should be for emergencies only, please sign out and sign back in on the clipboard provided.

NO cell phones, ipods, earbuds, etc are allowed in class.

Please raise your hand to be excused from your seat or if you have a question.

VII. Consequences

Students will be dealt with on an individual basis.

Students will be called down in class.

Parents will be contacted as necessary.

Discipline referrals will be written as necessary.

VIII. Attendance

If you are absent it is your responsibility to make up the work you missed in the allotted amount of time and be sure your notebook is up to date with all notes you missed. Information can be found in Canvas or on the announcement board in the classroom. Also feel free to ask the teacher what you missed while absent.

Students will receive a "1" in power school for work missed due to being absent until the makeup work is submitted.

Students will be expected to turn in assignments/take quizzes or tests on the day they return if they were present when they were assigned. It is the student's responsibility to communicate with the teacher if they have any question or concern about when items must be turned in due to being absent.

IX. Technology

Computers and our online learning platform, Canvas will be used as a tool to aid in classroom instruction. However, much of Math II will be done with paper, pencil and calculator. Therefore there will be times where it is necessary to put computers away and do mathematical computations to comprehend the topic.

X. Tardy Policy

At CATA, instruction is very important. All students are expected to be in their classrooms and ready to receive instruction before the tardy bell rings for each class. Following the tardy bell, students who are not in first period class must report to the front office for a tardy pass. During the rest of the day teachers will mark student tardy in the PowerSchool Attendance System. Only students with a Tardy Pass will be admitted after the tardy bell rings for first period.

1st/2nd Tardy: Warning from an administrator in the front office (1st period) and the teacher in the classroom (all periods)

3rd Tardy: Warning from an administrator in the front office (1st period) and the teacher in the classroom (all periods). The teacher will contact the parent on the third tardy by phone.

4th/5th Tardy: Warning from an administrator in the front office (1st period) and the teacher in the classroom (all periods). The teacher will submit a discipline referral to the administration and 1 day ASD with administration. The administration will contact the parent.

6th/7th Tardy: Warning from an administrator in the front office (1st period) and the teacher in the classroom (all periods). The teacher will submit a discipline referral to the administration and 2 days ASD with administration. The administration will contact the parent.

8th Tardy: Warning from an administrator in the front office (1st period) and the teacher in the classroom (all periods). The teacher will submit a discipline referral to the administration and 3 days ASD. The administration will set up a parent conference, create a written plan, and possible additional consequences.
